

NEW JERSEY'S HOME & DESIGN MAGAZINE

designNJ

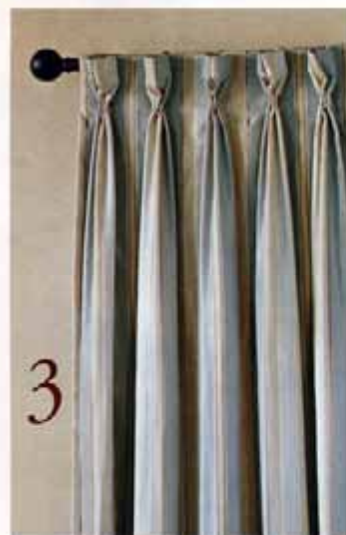

AUGUST/SEPTEMBER 2007

design à la carte

on-the-go options

Need instant gratification? Consider ready-made window treatments in high-style fashions to quickly alter the feel of a room

1. Air of Elegance Tajmina silk drapes from Metropolitan Window Fashions are available in six solid colors and assorted stripes and checks. They come 96 inches long and can be special-ordered up to 126 inches. Priced from $90-$170 per panel. Sources include Metropolitan Window Fashions stores in Paramus and North Plainfield. Or visit www.metrowf.com.

2. Clean & Sophisticated This fabric panel glides along a track system for sleek, easy use. Versatile for small or large windows, sliding doors, or even to divide a room. Choose from a variety of fabrics. Prices from $318 for a 60-by-72-inch system. For a source, 800-754-1455 or www.theshadestore.com.

3. Silken Stripes Goblet-pleated curtains in striped silk sateen (20 by 84 inches) coordinate with the Evora bedding ensemble from Eastern Accents. $534 per panel. Also sold in longer lengths: 96, 108, and 120 inches. To the trade and select retailers. For a source, www.easternaccents.com.

4. Signature Style Red and black silk panels from Mis en Scene are lined with polyester with a cotton interline. Also available in white/black and brown/white. Standard size is 54 by 110 inches, but they can be custom-made according to color, fabric, and size. $913 for standard size. For a source, www.misenescenegreenwich.com.

5. One-of-a-Kind Chelsea — a green embroidered taffeta exclusive to The Curtain Exchange — is lined and interlined. Stock curtains come in 120-inch lengths but can be customized. Custom orders are available. $1,595 per pair. The Curtain Exchange in Ridgewood or www.thecurtainexchange.com.