

North Jersey Homes

home design & decor | real estate | going green | home improvement & gardening | outdoor living | home technology

+ GET IT TOGETHER

DESIGNER ORGANIZES AND TRANSFORMS A MAHWAH DINING ROOM

+ REAL ESTATE

IMPROVE YOUR CREDIT SCORE LONG BEFORE APPLYING FOR A LOAN

+ CLASSIFIEDS

REAL ESTATE LISTINGS: APARTMENTS, HOUSES AND CONDOS FOR SALE OR RENT

METROPOLITAN WINDOW FASHIONS

Lisa Caulfield of Oradell, center, accepts her $2,500 gift certificate from Metropolitan Window Fashions president Bruce Heyman, left, and decorator Denise Di Trani.

Lisa Caulfield of Oradell has won a $2,500 gift certificate to purchase custom-made window treatments from Metropolitan Window Fashions (MWF). The certificate was second prize in a $10,000 sweepstakes sponsored by the national organization Exciting Windows!

"It was a great surprise, and a very timely one," Caulfield said. "I got married (last) October, and my husband and I recently bought a new home. So this decorating money really comes in handy!"

Caulfield's name was drawn at random from about 5,000 entries submitted over a six-month period to MWF's area stores, located in Paramus, Wayne, North Plainfield and New York City. She filled out her free sweepstakes chance at the Paramus store and will also be purchasing her window treatments there.

After meeting with MWF president Bruce Heyman and decorating specialist Denise DiTrani, Caulfield decided to stretch her prize money and spend only part of it to dress her two bedroom windows. "I could have spent the entire amount on those treatments," she explained, "but with Denise's guidance, I'll also apply some of it to window coverings in the living and dining rooms."

MWF is a member of Exciting Windows! — a network of over 100 window treatment businesses from around the U.S. — which sponsored the national contest. The top prize of $10,000 went to Karen Rollinson of Georgia. All member businesses then chose regional second and third place prizes; MWF awarded its $500 third prize to Sally Riley of Long Valley.

Metropolitan Window Fashions is currently holding another contest — its 75th Anniversary Room Makeover Sweepstakes — with $10,000 in prizes, including a first-prize $7,500 Custom Window Makeover. Entries are accepted, free, online at www.metrowf.com or at any MWF store.

