

walls, windows & floors

Style Notes

in store

BY ERIKA RASMUSSEN

Where to buy window covering fabrics

Rose Brand. Rose Brand supplies drapery fabrics, trim and hardware to movie-set and theater designers, but you don't need a movie star's budget to buy the products. Unclaimed custom orders go for bargain-basement prices and the regular stock is affordable. New York City, 800-223-1624; North Hollywood, California 800-360-5056, www.rosebrand.com.

Fabric Place. Voted the Best Fabric Store in Boston, this New England chain boasts thousands of bolts in everything from taffeta to toile. It offers DIY courses on making window treatments and custom-design services. www.fabricplace.com.

Fabricland Interiors. The largest window fashion store in New Jersey, Fabricland (and its sister store, Nassaus) carries more than 800 in-stock, ready-made window fashions, 500 bolts of fabric, 1,200 trimmings and a custom decorating department. www.fabricland.com; www.nassaus.com.

03942
3 1
Woman's Day
Classic Series
Volume XIII, Number 1
U.S. $4.50
CANADA $4.99
Display until May 20, 2003
womansday.com/specials
*with shipping & handling